

Cédric Charrier

16.05.2005 — FRENCH

PROGRAMMING & DESIGN STUDENT

A video game enthusiast, I aspire to become a Technical Game Designer : a bridge between departments, using my skills as both a designer and a programmer.

CONTACT

c.charrier@rubika-edu.com

My LinkedIn

(+33) 6 42 53 85 72

34 Av. Du Sénateur Girard
59300 Valenciennes, France

EXPERIENCES

Rubika

Video Game Director — 2028

Fourth year of study out of five
Project Management
Game Design and Programming

Freelance

Teaching at Edavenir — Since 2024

Cambridge

English certificate Level C1 — 187

Gerson — Highschool

Baccalauréat — 2023 European Option

High School diploma
Scientific Option
(A Levels with honours)

PROJECTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Fast FPS - Full Plastic Shooter

Lead Programmer

Video game development project of a Fast FPS in a 20 person team during a 4 months period. Managing the programming team, and supporting the vision for the game.

Puzzle Adventure - Chasm

Puzzle & Level Designer

A puzzle Adventure game developed in a 10 person team, during our study semester in Montréal. Designing the system during the conception phase, then working on levels to ensure a progressive difficulty

Study semester in Montréal

Game Designer / Game Programmer

Regular use of professional english & french (written communication and spoken). Deep diving into the video game industry. Specific focus on fundraising and production pipelines.

► More details on my_portfolio

SKILLS

- Unity/Unreal/C#/C++
- Teaching
- Adobe / Office
- Management
- Communication
- English Fluent